Zambia: [President Kaunda may face new pressures that could eventually threaten political and economic stability in Zambia.]

25X1

[Kaunda to date has overcome recurrent pressures by European white supremacy sympathizers and politically self-seeking and unsophisticated local Africans. Rhodesian independence has tended to polarize racial feelings, however. Action against Europeans could trigger an exodus of the already jittery white population. Steps against the union, which has pressed for the immediate promotion of Africans to responsible positions, higher wages, and improved living and working conditions, could cause violent African reactions.]

NOTE

Italy: [Serious negotiations for the replacement of Foreign Minister Fanfani are not likely to begin until the end of the month, although there is considerable behind-the-scenes maneuvering for the post. It is still uncertain whether Fanfani will be persuaded to re-enter the government or what will be the timing or extent of other anticipated ministerial changes. Coalition leaders are seeking to avoid a formal government crisis,
